

John H. Ray, III Of Counsel

Mr. Ray has over ten years of experience in complex securities fraud class actions and derivative litigation. Prior to working with Kachroo Legal Services P.C., he worked for Cravath, Swain & Moore LLP in New York and Ropes & Gray LLP in Boston. In addition to his extensive knowledge and experience in securities litigation and government enforcement actions, he has also developed a substantial background in special investigations, advising corporate special committees, RICO and antitrust litigation, as well as arbitration and appellate litigation. He has successfully second-chaired jury trials and argued before the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

Mr. Ray is also a certified federal mediator in criminal and civil disputes.
